

Let's Talk About Solutions

During the pandemic, it is easy to feel frustrated and isolated. Therefore, the Council for Learning Disabilities (CLD) is reaching out to provide a venue to discuss solution focused issues related to topics that matter to educators and researchers. Our vision is to build a community of scholars and advocates that use these discussions as a foundation to develop innovative ideas that support the creation of more equitable and accessible in all educational spaces.

To this end, we have set up a thread on Slack to start the conversation. We will then set up a Zoom meeting to offer time for the community to collaborate in breakout rooms. Please feel free to join one or all of the threads offered.

Starting Topics and Slack Channel:

- * Research and Scholarship #cldslowtalkresearch
- * Instructional Topics: EC-12 and Higher Education #cldslowtalkteaching
- * Graduate Students #cldslowtalkgraduatestudents
